

Youth Minister

Alvarado Church of Christ

Position: Full-time Youth Minister

Salary: $36,000-$40,000 D.O.E.

Job Description: We are a congregation that averages 150, located in Alvarado, TX, just south of the DFW metroplex. We are currently seeking a full-time Youth minister to work with and grow our youth group and young adults.

Attributes / Requirements include:

- Must uphold the beliefs and teachings of the Church of Christ and be a baptized believer.
- While a degree in biblical studies is desired, experience and verifiable references will be considered.
- While it is not essential that the youth minister be married, if he is, we look forward to having his wife participate in church activities.
- Would be required to participate and help in and during the organization of VBS as well as prepare and teach Sunday and Wednesday church service classes.
- Would be required to participate as well as plan activities such as summer camp, youth rallies, services/mission work, etc...
- Keep parents informed of activities with a printed copy as well as posting a monthly calendar of activities.
- Would be required to fill-in pulpit preaching duties as the need arises.
- Must strive to develop a healthy, loving working relationship with the Elders, Deacons, other church staff, and, of course, the members of the congregation.
- Must be willing to take on other duties as assigned by the Elders.

Resumes should be sent in .pdf format no later than June 1, 2021, to:

Alvaradococyouthministersearch@gmail.com

All applicants are subject to a background check and drug testing.