

Pulpit Minister Opportunity – Clarksville, TN

The Hilldale Church of Christ in Clarksville, Tennessee seeks an experienced full-time pulpit minister to equip the saints at an established, active a cappella congregation of 300+. Our current minister is set to retire in August 2024 after 25 years of service. Hilldale is a diverse and devoted family that has been called the “friendliest church in Clarksville”. This role will work alongside the eldership, our deacons and minister team to spiritually strengthen our own families and equip us in reaching our community with the gospel. We are looking for a married man with a minimum of five years of pulpit ministerial experience and a minimum of a 4-year Bible degree or equivalent preaching school education. We desire a man who has a strong understanding of God’s Word and is highly motivated to share God’s Word with all ages. Strong communication and personal skills are necessary. Interested, qualified individuals may submit resume, recent videos (or links to) of sermons, and references via email to (ministersearch@hilldalecc.org). Salary is negotiable and will be based on experience and qualifications.

Clarksville, located north of Nashville is the 5th largest city in Tennessee. It is home to Clarksville Christian School, Austin Peay State University as well as Ft. Campbell Army Post. Clarksville is a great place to spread the Word and raise a family.
