Northside Church of Christ

Duties of Youth and Family Minister

1. Lead an effective youth program.
2. Lead youth on the pathway to salvation.
3. Inspire youth, their parents, and other young adults to do the Lord's work.
4. Teach teen classes.
5. Help organize and lead Vacation Bible School
6. Organize activities for K through 12th grade several times per year (some combined others age specific)
7. Initiate activities for young adults
8. Promote activities for families.
9. Encourage youth to attend Christian summer camps.
10. Planning and/or participating in mission trips for teens and/or adults.
11. Lead singing for the assembly as needed.
12. Lead singing for teens (teach them to sing and praise the Lord)
13. Communicate with families, young adults, teens and youth about events and activities.
14. Teach adult classes as needed (especially young adults)
15. Fill in as pulpit preacher as needed.
16. Assist with local outreach and evangelistic programs.
17. Build relationships with area ministers of Youth and Family.
18. Inspire families, young married couples, singles, and youth to perfect their talents for the Lord.
19. The Youth and Family Minister is to:
    a. Be sound and mature in the Faith.
    b. Be friendly and outgoing.
    c. Effectively communicate with the congregation.
    d. Cooperate with the pulpit preacher.
    e. Be responsible for Youth and Family items of weekly bulletin.
    f. Cooperate with the deacon that works with youth.
    g. Be in submission to the elders unless such submission is inconsistent with the scriptures.
    h. Keep deacon for the youth and the elders informed of scheduled events.
    i. Discuss trips and activities with deacon for youth and the elders prior to planning such events.
    j. Conduct himself always as a Christian should, as his wife is also expected to conduct herself.
    k. Wise and prudent use of the Lord's finances (Youth and Family Budget)
    l. Keep a log of activities and submit to the elders monthly.

m. Keep the office neat and presentable.