

COMMENTARY RECOMMENDATIONS FOR MINISTERS

2010

Compiled by Don L. Meredith

COMMENTARIES LISTED FROM THE FOLLOWING SOURCES:

Martin. N.T. Books for Pastor and Teacher. 1984.

In his recommendations “the interests of pastors, preachers, and teachers have been kept uppermost.”

Goldingay. O.T. Commentary Survey. 1994 ed.

Concentrates on works “which are likely to be most useful to students training for the ministry and ministers and preachers themselves.”

Fee & Stuart. How to Read the Bible for All Its Worth. 3rd ed. 2003.

Childs. The New Testament as Canon. 1984.

Listed those from his “Selected Commentaries for Pastor and Teacher.”

Sugg & Trotti. Building a Pastor’s Library. 1991.

Stuart. Guide to Selecting and Using Bible Commentaries. 1990.

Listed those from his “Very Best Commentaries” list.

Carson. New Testament Commentary Survey. 6th ed. 2007.

Listed those from his “Best Buys,” which he identifies as those “commentaries that are a good value for the money for the theological student or well-trained preacher.”

These are not necessarily the best commentaries on every N.T. book.

Longman. Old Testament Commentary Survey. 4th ed. 2007.

Listed are those he ranked as a 3 ½, 4 or 5 on a 1-to-5 scale.

Glynn. Commentary & Reference Survey. 10th ed. 2007.

Listed those titles in his “Ultimate Commentary Collection,” which “charts the best exegetical and expositional commentaries.”

Bauer. An Annotated Guide to Biblical Resources for Ministry. 2003.

Listed those he highly recommended and those he felt were significant. The ultimate purpose of Bauer’s bibliography “is to direct students to those works that will be most helpful in interpreting the Bible for preaching and teaching in the church and for personal formation in Christian discipleship.”

Evans. Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works for Students & Pastors. 6th ed. 2001

Listed those he starred (*) as suggestions for purchase. “Usually these recommended works emphasize scholarly exegesis and full exposition rather than devotional/sermonic helps.”

This listing is a compilation of commentaries, the majority of which are published in series, recommended by the sources listed. The series are indicated in italics; titles of those commentaries not part of a series are underlined. In some cases monographs and collections of essays on major issues and/or themes in a biblical book are listed. This list does not represent the recommendation of the Harding School of Theology, its biblical faculty, or its library staff, but if a commentary is recommended by several of these lists it should receive the student's attention (e.g., Wenham’s commentary on Genesis is recommended on eight of these lists). Note that these lists primarily recommend commentaries for ministers to use in preparation for sermons or for Bible lessons to church members and often because of inaccessibility, expense, or heavy use of the original languages a more scholarly volume might not be recommended. HST students should consult the annotations in the lists to determine which commentaries may be more suitable for use in term papers.
