

ÉCOLE BIBLIQUE
Don L. Meredith
Harding School of Theology
2015/16

The École Biblique in Jerusalem is one of the world's best biblical collections. Its catalog contains author and subject entries for each article/essay in all volumes of journals & multi-author works as well as chapters from many books held by the library. It was founded in 1890 and contains materials on the Bible, archaeology, Ancient Near East, Graeco-Roman world, numismatics, epigraphy, and papyrology. The library has the 12-volume 1983-84 photographic reproduction of the card catalog (R.R.016.22/E19) as well as the 2000 CD-ROM version. The online catalog of all its holdings to date is available free online at: <http://www.ebaf.info/?lang=en> .

Headings and instructions are in French. Attached are the French names of the books of the Bible, personal names, place names, and lists of some theological and biblical terms. For most geographical and personal names, headings will be very similar or the same. You may usually substitute certain letters methodically:

English	French
a, i, us	e
aeus	ee
k	c
z	s
sh	s

It is not necessary to include the diacritical marks when entering French terms in search fields.

Click on “Bibliothèque” or “Library” and on “Consultation le Catalogue.” Click “pericope” or “péricopes” to search for material on a biblical passage. In the field “défaut” select “Sujet/péricope.” Enter the book of the Bible (in French) followed by (parties) and chapter and verse (separated by a period). Precede single-digit chapter and verse numbers with a zero. Enter books of the Bible with more than one book as follows: Rois I, Corinthiens I, etc. Note entries below for the epistles of Peter and John. Click on “Biblio record” for results list.

Nombres (parties) 03.06 (for Numbers 3:6)
