

HARDING SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

2018 Hogan-Cate Asian Missions Sabbatical

Harding School of Theology based in Memphis, Tennessee, USA, invites applications for the 2018 Hogan-Cate Asian Missions Sabbatical.

The sabbatical recipient will be an accomplished male or female missionary, church worker or ministry leader from among acappella Churches of Christ in Asia and the South Pacific. The sabbatical is made possible by the Hogan-Cate Endowed Asian Missions Fund established at Harding University in honor of longtime missionaries to Asia, Gordon & Jane Hogan and Steve & Jean Cate.

The sabbatical is for a period of between three to five months commencing from August 2018. The sabbatical recipient is to be based largely at HST in Memphis with time also to be spent at the main campus of Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas. Funds could cover airfare, housing on campus, transportation, food, tuition for audit or credit courses, Christian counseling and visiting churches and ministries in Memphis and Searcy.

The sabbatical recipient is also expected to participate in the Harding University Bible Lectureship (conducted in the Fall each year) and other special events at Harding University and HST for spiritual renewal and to promote missions in Asia.

An information sheet and application form are available from hst.edu and applications should be emailed to dean@hst.edu by January 1, 2018.

Harding School of Theology
1000 Cherry Road | Memphis, Tennessee 38117, USA | (901) 761-1350
1-800-680-0809 | Fax (901) 761-1358 | hst.edu