

HARDING SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

5000 Old Testament Survey Spring 2018, Tuesdays 1:00-3:45 PM

Professor: Lance Hawley
Email: lhawley2@harding.edu
Cell Phone: (901) 275-0468
Office Phone: (901) 432-7729

Welcome to Old Testament Survey!

“This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.” (Josh 1:8)

“Many great teachings have been given to us through the Law and the Prophets and the others that followed them, and for these we should praise Israel for instruction and wisdom. Now, those who read the scriptures must not only themselves understand them, but must also as lovers of learning be able through the spoken and written word to help the outsiders.” (Prologue to Sirach)

COURSE GOALS

Our goals pertain to the italicized intended degree outcomes for the M.Div., M.A.C.M., and M.A., degrees.

Demonstrate exegetical skills in the interpretation of scripture

1. Students should develop a holistic understanding of the Old Testament narrative, the story of God and the people of Israel from creation to the post-exilic period.
2. Students should show a comprehension of the structure and basic content of the Old Testament books.
3. Students should demonstrate an ability to identify key characters, places, and themes in the Old Testament.

Evidence a love for God and others and a personal commitment to spiritual formation

4. Students should develop a respect for the creative and redemptive work of God as it is revealed in the Old Testament.
5. Students should discover more fully their own place in the story of God.

TEXT BOOKS

Rainey, Anson F. and R. Steven Notley. Carta's New Century Handbook and Atlas of the Bible. Jerusalem: Carta, 2007.

The Jewish Study Bible. 2nd edition. Oxford: Oxford University, 2014.

Textbooks can be ordered through a link on the HST website. The Textbooks tab can be viewed on the navigation bar on any page of the website. Check the book list provided under the Textbooks tab (<http://hst.edu/students/textbook-services/>) for correct ISBN's and editions to insure correct ordering. A link provided there will take you to Amazon where you will only need to enter the ISBN to order your books. By going through our website, HST will receive some credit from the order. Thanks for your support.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Exams – There will be two exams with primarily objective questions. They are not cumulative and each is worth 40% of your final grade. Students will take the first exam on the first day of the class and it will cover the readings in Torah and Prophets. The second exam will cover the Writings and lecture material. The exams will be taken on Canvas. Students will need to arrange for a proctor for the second exam.
2. Note Taking/Study Guide – Students are required to complete study guides for each exam and hand them in prior to the exam (10% of your final grade for each). At the beginning of the semester, I will give you a list of People, Places, Concepts, and Quotations that you must identify. You will use the Jewish Study Bible (and accompanying notes) and the Carta Handbook and Atlas to fill out the study guide.

ADDITIONAL POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Accessibility/Communication

HST professors are accessible to local and distance students. Please use the following to arrange appointments with me (in person or by phone):

Email: lhawley2@harding.edu

Cell Phone Number: (901) 275-0468

Office Phone Number: (901) 432-7729

The best way to communicate with me is by email. I check it often and expect you to check it as well for class announcements and additional documents. Feel free to contact me with your questions any time. I will use Canvas and your Harding University email address, so please make sure to check it regularly.

Students with Disabilities

It is the policy of Harding University to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal and state law. Any student with a disability who needs accommodation should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course. Students with disabilities are also encouraged to contact Steve McLeod, the Associate Dean, at 901-761-1353.

Credit Hour Workload

For every course credit hour, the typical student should expect to spend at least three clock hours per week of concentrated attention on course-related work, including but not limited to time attending class, as well as out-of-class time spent reading, reviewing, organizing notes, preparing for upcoming exams, problem solving, developing and completing projects, and other activities that enhance learning. Thus, for a three-hour course, a typical student should expect to spend at least nine hours per week dedicated to the course.

Academic Integrity

Academic dishonesty in all its forms is inconsistent with Christian faith and practice, and will result in penalties which could include a failing grade for the assignment, a failing grade for the course, dismissal from the course, and even dismissal from the school.

Canvas Online Learning System

In addition to the live video platform Zoom.us (see below), this course uses Harding's Canvas Online Learning System, which is accessed at <http://elearning.harding.edu>. If you have problems gaining access to Canvas, contact HU technical support (501) 279-4545. You will need your HST username and your password to log into Harding Pipeline. These are the same credentials you use to register for classes via Pipeline.

When you need to contact your professor via email, you may use the email system contained in the Canvas learning management system, although it is best to email directly to lhawley2@harding.edu.

Harding University gives each student an email address that also utilizes your user name. Many students use other email addresses as their preferred address. You can set your Harding G-mail account to forward messages to an alternative email address if you want; however, it is your responsibility to check your Harding email account regularly because this is the official Harding email address to which all Harding-related email will be sent.

GRADING SCALE

A = 90-100    B = 80-89    C = 70-79    D = 60-69    F = < 60
