
Textbooks are ordered on the HST website (http://hst.edu/students/textbook-services/). A link will take you to a KIT Store (https://kit.com/hst_edu/spring-2018-bookstore) that lists all textbooks. The Amazon links in the KIT store are coded such that HST will receive some credit from the order. Thanks for your support.

GOALS
Students in this course will learn the tools and develop skills to interpret the Greek text of the New Testament in a manner that can be described as historical, critical, and theological. The ultimate goal is to interpret the NT for spiritual formation for ourselves and others; to engage what it has to say about God, humanity, and our relationships to him and each other. This course teaches tools and methods that are situated within the history of interpretation and the framework of contemporary scholarship. Students are introduced to an eclectic variety of tools and methods primarily focused on determining historically situated meaning--but the importance of contemporary significance is always present. 1 Peter is used as an exemplary text.

CREDIT HOUR WORKLOAD
For every course credit hour, the typical student should expect to spend at least three clock hours per week of concentrated attention on course-related work, including but not limited to time attending class, as well as out-of-class time spent reading, reviewing, organizing notes, preparing for upcoming quizzes/exams, problem solving, developing and completing projects, and other activities that enhance learning. Thus, for a three-hour course, a typical student should expect to spend at least nine hours per week dedicated to the course.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
It is the policy of Harding University to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal and state law. Any student with a disability who needs accommodation should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course. Students with disabilities are also encouraged to contact Steve McLeod, the Associate Dean, at 901-761-1353.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Academic dishonesty in all its forms is inconsistent with Christian faith and practice, and will result in penalties which could include a failing grade for the assignment, a failing grade for the course, dismissal from the course, and even dismissal from the school.
LIBRARY RESOURCES
If you have not taken 5990 (Advanced Theological Research) or 5770 (Research in Counseling), or took either class more than a year ago, go to the HST Web site (www.hst.edu) for information concerning library services to students. Under the “library” tab you will find a link to and instructions for searching the HST online catalog. There are also instructions for using the following databases available through the library: OCLC FirstSearch, EBSCOhost, Infotrac, PsycINFO, and Religious and Theological Abstracts. Contact the library for passwords to these databases. Also available are the research guides distributed in 5990 and 5770. These annotated bibliographies list basic tools you will find helpful in your research.

REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

2. Greek Reading. The Greek text of 1 Peter will be read and tested for ten percent of the course grade.
3. Class Attendance. Regular class attendance is expected. Unapproved absences will result in a lower grade.
4. Exams. The mid-term and final exams will each count thirty percent of the course grade.
5. Term Paper. The term paper should be 13-15 pages, excluding the bibliography. It will count thirty percent of the course grade. Late papers will be graded down one-third letter per day for 3 days, then 1 point per day. The paper must be an exegetical analysis of a text from 1 Peter (other than 1 Pet. 3:18-20). CANVAS ONLINE LEARNING SYSTEM

In addition to the live video platform Zoom.us (see below), this course uses Harding’s Canvas Online Learning System, which is accessed at http://elearning.harding.edu. If you have problems gaining access to Canvas, contact HU technical support (501) 279-4545. You will need your HST username and your password to log into Harding Pipeline. These are the same credentials you use to register for classes via Pipeline.

When you need to contact your professor via email, you may use the email system contained in the Canvas learning management system, although it is best to email directly to ablack@harding.edu.

Harding University gives each student an email address that also utilizes your user name. Many students use other email addresses as their preferred address. You can set your Harding G-mail account to forward messages to an alternative email address if you want; however, it is your responsibility to check your Harding email account regularly because this is the official Harding email address to which all Harding-related email will be sent.

HST LIVE INTERACTIVE VIDEO EDUCATION (HST LIVE) via ZOOM

In addition to Canvas (see above), this HST-LIVE course is supported with the video platform Zoom.us. For new Zoom platform users, go to https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/categories/200101697-Getting-Started for helpful video tutorials about using this platform. The HST Live/Zoom Meeting ID for this course is https://zoom.us/j/9012336116.

Students new to HST LIVE should attend the HST LIVE orientation session scheduled for January 9 at 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Equipment Requirements for LIVE Sections:

- Laptop or tablet with camera or desktop computer with camera.
- Additional monitor – Live video conferencing is best facilitated with two monitors.
COMMON TERM PAPER PITFALLS

Deficiencies in Structure
1. Failure to delimit your topic sufficiently. This is a common and major error.
2. Poor organization. Please a) lay out your goal(s) plainly near the beginning of the paper, b) organize your paper around your goal(s), c) use subheadings to provide clear delineation of various sections, and d) summarize your results at the end.
3. Wandering into peripheral areas. Restrict your discussion to that which is directly pertinent to your goal(s).

Deficiencies in Research
4. Overlooking major scholars who comment on your text or topic.
5. Failure to use primary materials. Do not rely on secondary references to primary materials (unless they are not available or you cannot read them due to their language).
6. Reliance upon popular level sources which often promote inaccuracies.
7. Reliance upon older materials that reflect positions that are now out-of-date. Focus on recent scholarly materials.

Deficiencies in Argumentation
8. Failure to cover all significant positions on your subject.
9. Failure to reply to all major arguments against your own position or in favor of other positions.
10. Illegitimate use of scholars as authorities. The authority lies in the evidence and arguments presented by scholars, not in the scholars themselves.
11. Writing a bibliographical essay that reports on the viewpoints espoused by various scholars but does not evaluate them and move toward your own opinion. Your paper should not be a report of others opinions, but an analysis of arguments and evidence expressing your own views in interactions with scholarship.

Deficiencies in Academic Style
13. Inefficient use of footnotes. In addition to providing necessary references, footnotes should be used for additional bibliographical information (e.g., a list of those who hold a particular view) and for items that are significant, but do not belong in the text itself (e.g., minor textual variants, peripheral arguments, extreme minority viewpoints, etc.).
15. Lack of attention to Turabian and HST's Supplement.
Additional Term Paper Guidelines

1) The text and footnotes must be typed in a Courier 12 point font (10 characters per inch).

2) Do not use bold font. Use underlining or italics. Italics are preferable for the book/journal titles.

3) Please email the paper as one document: title page, paper, and bibliography. Start your numbering with 0 and tell Word to omit the number on the first page so you will not have a number on the title page. I am not concerned about the requirement that the number on page one and on the first page of the bibliography ought to be at the bottom of the page. Put all numbers at the top of the page.

4) Concerning the style for footnotes and bibliographical entries for commentaries, see HST's Supplement to Turabian, pp. 7-8. For most commentaries use the style at 17.1.5 for Raymond Brown. Note that you do not include the editor of the series. For a one-volume commentary with different contributors or a multivolume commentary with different contributors in each volume, use the style at 17.1.8 for Ward Gasque.

5) I reduce late term papers one-third letter per day for 3 days, then 1 point per day. I make exceptions for major illness (extending more than one week) and occasionally for other reasons that I consider justifiable. I determine the length of any time extension according to the cause. It is the student's responsibility to contact me concerning any such extension.

6) I give "A's" for better than average work. An "A" paper must include the following qualities: a) thorough research, b) at least 25 sources in the bibliography, c) frequent use of content and multiple-reference footnotes, d) clear organization, with well-written sentences and paragraphs, and e) few grammatical or spelling errors and competent use of Turabian style.

7) Plagiarism is completely unacceptable. Please familiarize yourself with what constitutes plagiarism. A good website with a brief overview of the subject is http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml
