

Congregation of 325 in North Metro Denver Seeks Family & Youth Minister

The Northwest Church of Christ is looking for a minister who is passionate about the spiritual and emotional development of families. We aspire to engage a mature and experienced minister who believes the church should support the formative spiritual work of parents in raising their children. Our goal is to support the spiritual and emotional development of families with a minister who will develop trust-based and example-led relationships with our parents and teens.

We have served the Westminster, Colorado community since the early 1960's. We are a grace-oriented congregation of approximately 325 people. We are a loving and welcoming family of Christ followers. We currently have seven Elders, a Pulpit Minister, and a fulltime Secretary. The northwestern metropolitan Denver population is increasing at a very fast rate. We are a diverse community with tremendous potential for outreach and church growth. We believe this is an exciting place to raise a family.

All ministers on staff at the Northwest Church of Christ are expected to maintain a healthy and balanced spiritual life. Attending to your marriage, children, and personal faith are critical to the effectiveness and longevity of your ministry. Practicing spiritual discipline, demonstrating integrity in all relationships, establishing appropriate boundaries for vocational and personal life, and increasing in your personal relationship with Christ are priorities for all of our ministers.

This position will require a minister who is excited to coach and counsel the parents and guardians of preteens and teens. The primary function of this ministry will be mentoring, teaching and encouraging parents and teens as they mature into the likeness of Christ.

Along with the primary responsibilities of our family and youth minister you will be expected to work with and support our pulpit minister. This requirement will necessitate an individual having skills as a generalist in ministry.

Those looking for a traditional youth ministry position should not apply. However, experienced youth ministers who desire to broaden their skills into family ministry will be well received.

Minimum requirements:

Personal integrity

Professional competence

Bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited school

6 years of full time youth or family ministry experience

Proficiency in Spanish is not required, but would be highly valued

Serious candidates are asked to e-mail a letter of introduction and their resume to nwcoc.staffsearch@gmail.com. If you have any questions, or would like to see a complete job description make your request known through the e-mail address above.
