

BOB TURNER

1000 Cherry Rd. Memphis, TN 38117

rjturner@harding.edu

(901) 423-7751

Position

Library Director, Harding School of Theology, 2017-

Circulation Librarian, Harding School of Theology, 2009-2017

Education

Bachelor of Arts, Bible and Religion, Harding University, 2004

Masters of Divinity, Harding University Graduate School of Religion, 2009

Masters of Science in Library and Information Science, University of Illinois, 2013

Publications

“A Review of To Serve God and Wal-Mart,” by Bethany Moreton, Restoration Quarterly 53, no. 3 (2011): 188-9.

“A Review of Dictionary of Scripture and Ethics,” by Joel B. Green, Stone-Campbell Journal 16, no. 1 (2013): 106-7.

“A Review of Dictionary of the Bible and Western Culture,” by Mary Ann Beavis and Michael J. Gilmour, Theological Librarianship 7, no. 1 (2014): 77-8.

“A Review of Good Food,” by Jennifer Ayres, Stone-Campbell Journal 18, no 1 (2015): 99-100.

“A Review of IATG 3: Internationales Abkürzungsverzeichnis für Theologie und Grenzgebiete,” by Siegfried Schwertner, Theological Librarianship 9, no. 1 (2016): 61.

“Luke, Luther, LOGOS, and Libraries,” Summary of Proceedings, Seventieth Annual Conference of the American Theological Library Association, 43-53, ed. Tawny Burgess, 2016.

Mission: An Oral History, with Dwain Evans, Don Haymes, Richard Hughes, Victor Hunter, Warren Lewis, and Thomas Olbricht. Missio Dei Foundation, 2017.

Professional Memberships

American Theological Library Association; Christian College Librarians; Tennessee Theological Library Association; Memphis Area Library Council; Board Member, Restoration Serials Index; Stone-Campbell Teaching Archive

Research Interests

Theological librarianship, ethics, race relations, food and theology, Stone-Campbell studies, and homiletics

Ministry Context

Teacher, Journey Bible Class. Church of Christ at White Station, Memphis, TN, 2005-present
Preaching Team. Church of Christ at White Station, 2015-present

Personal

Married to Andrea (VanZant) since 2004. Have two daughters, Julia and Kathryn.