

Full-Time Domestic Minister

The Horseheads church of Christ in New York is seeking a full-time domestic minister to preach, teach, evangelize, do home Bible studies as well as to minister to the congregation in all aspects. We are looking for someone who is missions minded and desires to evangelize our community and to continue to build the faith of our congregation.

A strong Bible background is required with preaching and teaching experience preferred. A degree in Bible and/or ministry is preferred but not required if experience is sufficient. An interest in church growth and a vision which involves members in the ministry to help equip them in their role in the church and community.

Horseheads is in rural upstate New York in the beautiful southern tier of the Finger Lakes region.

If you are interested in working with the church in Horseheads, please send resume, sample video or audio sermons, your statement of faith and three or more references from churches you have served to HorseheadschurchofChrist@outlook.com.
