Dear Sir/Madam,

Holmes Road Church of Christ in Memphis, TN, is seeking a full-time co-minister. Five elders, thirteen deacons, and a co-minister currently serve the congregation. The Holmes Road congregation began in 1959 and has long been strongly committed to both the community and missions. The congregation of about 175 members is diverse racially, educationally, socioeconomically, politically, in age, and in talents. One of its strengths has been the unity that exists among such diversity.

Our purpose as Christians is to be ministers of reconciliation; our task as a congregation is to use our unique time, place, talents, and opportunities to accomplish that ministry. We wish to glorify God in word, worship, and daily life. This minister position will work with the elders and the co-minister to help promote spiritual growth in the body and in our relationship with the Lord; relationships with one another; and outreach to the community.

We are seeking a candidate with ministry experience in a multi-cultural environment or congregation, or the strong desire to work in such a congregation. This minister would perform the following functions:

- Communicates God's word through teaching and preaching, sharing preaching time with co-minister
- Collaborates with the co-minister, other staff members, elders, deacons, and members of the church to plan ministry/congregational activities that reflect Biblical objectives
- Invests in members' lives and provides spiritual counseling
- Develops relationships within the community and participates in community activities
- Possesses and communicates a vision for what God can do through his faithful children

Interested parties should send a cover letter expressing interest, a resume, and at least three references with contact information to the search committee at HRMinisterSearch@gmail.com. Links to video or audio of any available sermons would also be beneficial (YouTube, Facebook, etc.).

Sincerely,

Jamin D. Speer
Chairman, Ministerial Search Committee
