252/B561. Cox, James W., ed. Best Sermons. 7v. San Francisco: HarperSanFrancisco, 1988-94.

An annual published by Harper & Row. Each volume contains 52 sermons. Approximately one half of these are commissioned by the editor from well-known preachers. The others are the result of an annual competition in which preachers from around the world submit their best effort for the year. About 8 to 10 sermons are included under each of the following categories: evangelistic, expository, doctrinal/theological, ethical, pastoral, and devotional. Each volume contains an index of scriptural texts. Among the contributing editors are David G. Buttrick, Fred B. Craddock, Carl F. H. Henry, David Allan Hubbard, John Killinger, Lloyd J. Ogilvie, David H. C. Read, and William H. Willimon.

252/L697. Klingsporn, Gary W., ed. The Library of Distinctive Sermons. Sisters, OR: Questar Publishers, 1996- .

Each volume contains 20 sermons by contemporary American preachers. Each sermon is followed by a comment section containing reflections on what made the sermon distinctive and effective. These comments deal with the use of biblical texts, the problem addressed, the nature of the proclamation, the response required, and suggestions for thought of discussion.
