

Lance R. Hawley
Associate Professor of Old Testament
Harding School of Theology

lhawley2@harding.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Hebrew Bible, University of Wisconsin, 2016
M.A., Hebrew Bible, University of Wisconsin, 2012
M.Div., Harding University Graduate School of Religion, 2003
B.A., Biblical Studies, York College, 1999

SELECT PUBLICATIONS

Metaphor Competition in the Book of Job. Journal of Ancient Judaism Supplements 26. Göttingen: Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht, 2018.

“Job.” In Adaptable for Life: The Message of the Old Testament for Contemporary Readers. Eds. Kilnam Cha, Melinda Thompson, and Kevin Youngblood. Wipf & Stock/Cascade Books. Forthcoming.

“Life in Job.” In Biblical Theology of Life in the Old Testament. Reformed Theology in Africa Series 5. Eds. A.J. Coetsee and F.P. Viljoen, 195-215. Cape Town: AOSIS, 2021.

“The Rhetoric of Condemnation in the Book of Job.” Journal of Biblical Literature 139 (2020): 459-478.

“The Agenda of Priestly Taxonomy: The Conceptualization of אָמָר and יָדָבָר in Leviticus 11.” Catholic Biblical Quarterly 77 (2015): 231-249.

“Linguistic Markers of Polar Interrogatives in Biblical Hebrew.” Hebrew Studies 56 (2015): 7-22.

SELECT PRESENTATIONS

“The Rhetoric of Condemnation in the Book of Job,” Society of Biblical Literature, Annual Meeting, Fall 2017

“The ‘Low-life’ Mockers of Job: Job 30:1-8 as an Extended Animal Metaphor,” Society of Biblical Literature, Annual Meeting, Fall 2015

“Metaphor Coherence and Competition in the Joban Discourse: ‘Proverbs of Ashes’ in Its Conceptual Context,” Society of Biblical Literature, Annual Meeting, Fall 2014

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Hebrew Bible, Wisdom Literature, Poetry

MINISTRY INVOLVEMENT

Shepherd, Sycamore View Church of Christ, Memphis, TN.
Past ministry involvement includes mission work in Wisconsin.