

Richard E. Oster

Professor of New Testament
Harding School of Theology

(901) 432-7718 • roster@harding.edu

EDUCATION

Post-Doc., Independent Study, Österreichisches Archäologisches Institut, Vienna, Austria, 1985
Post-Doc., Independent Research, Franz J. Dölger-Institut an der Universität, Bonn, Germany, 1975
Ph.D., New Testament, Princeton Theological Seminary, 1974
M.A., Religious Studies, Rice University, 1971
B.A., Classical Latin and Greek, Texas Tech University, 1969

SELECT PUBLICATIONS

Books

Seven Congregations in a Roman Crucible, Eugene, OR, Wipf & Stock, 2013
First Corinthians. The College Press NIV Commentary. Joplin, Mo.: College Press, 1995.
A Bibliography on Ancient Ephesus; With Introduction and Index. ATLA Bibliography Series, 19. Metuchen, N.J.: Scarecrow Press, 1987.
The Acts of the Apostles Pt. II, chaps 13:1-28:31. The Living Word Commentary. Austin, Texas: Sweet Publishing Co., 1979.

Articles

“Galatians.” In The Transforming Word: A One-Volume Commentary on the Bible. Ed. Mark Hamilton. Abilene, TX: ACU Press, 2009.
“The Ephesian Artemis ‘whom all Asia and the world worship’ (Acts 19:27): Representative Epigraphical testimony to Artemis outside Ephesos.” In Transmission and Reception: New Testament Text-Critical and Exegetical Studies. Festschrift for Carroll D. Osburn. Series: Texts and Studies 4. Piscataway, NJ: Gorgias Press, 2006.
“Cenchrea.” In Eerdmans Dictionary of the Bible. Ed. in chief David Noel Freedman. Grand Rapids, Mich.: W.B. Eerdmans, p. 305, 2000.
“Greek Inscriptions.” In Eerdmans Dictionary of the Bible. Ed. in chief David Noel Freedman. Grand Rapids, Mich.: W.B. Eerdmans, pp. 638-639, 2000

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Archeology, Revelation

MINISTRY INVOLVEMENT

White Station Church of Christ, Memphis, TN.