

ÉCOLE BIBLIQUE
Harding School of Theology
2021

The École Biblique in Jerusalem is one of the world's best biblical collections. Its catalog contains author and subject entries for each article/essay in all volumes of journals & multi-author works as well as chapters from many books held by the library. It was founded in 1890 and contains more than 150,000 volumes and 400 specialized periodicals on the Bible, archaeology, Ancient Near East, Graeco-Roman world, numismatics, epigraphy, and papyrology. The library has the 12-volume 1983-84 photographic reproduction of the card catalog (R.R.016.22/E19) as well as the 2000 CD-ROM version. The online catalog of all its holdings to date is available free online at: <https://biblio.ebaf.edu/>

Click on "English" at the top of the Web page. Attached are the French names of the books of the Bible, personal names, place names, and lists of some theological and biblical terms. For most geographical and personal names, headings will be very similar or the same. You may usually substitute certain letters methodically:

English	French
a, i, us	e
aeus	ee
k	c
z	s
sh	s

It is not necessary to include the diacritical marks when entering French terms in search fields.

Click on "Library" at the bottom of the page. Click on "Click here to use the catalog. Click on "Authority search" to search for material on a biblical passage.
