

Multipurpose Minister Opening

Springfield Church of Christ (Springfield, VA), a small but diverse congregation, is seeking a Multipurpose Minister to serve with the congregation. We are seeking a biblically-grounded individual who can apply the scripture to our 21st-century challenges and opportunities and encourage members to access the power of the Holy Spirit in our daily lives. The individual must be equipped to effectively preach, teach, and prepare the church body for discipleship and service. Able and willing to minister to the youth and underserved.

Must be able to empathize with those who are hurting, provide individual assistance and direction as needed, be a clear communicator and have initiative. Organizational skills, the ability to create a workable plan, and follow-through which includes activating an increasing percentage of members of the congregation are also desired.

We are seeking an individual to partner with us as we support each other in the challenges of living the Christian life daily. This individual should consider themselves a part of our congregational family, with a focus on shepherding.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Springfield is a small church community with a leadership team dedicated to seeking God's path for the congregation. As a member of the leadership team, the Minister is expected to:

- Regularly support the church's vision through the preaching of God's word.
- Create a mission-focused atmosphere to encourage church growth and outreach to bring the Word to those seeking relationships.
- Responsible for preaching or coordinating preaching at worship services. Deliver quality scriptural lessons that build up the body of the church and challenge the body to greater works of love and devotion to God.
- Develop and work with small group leaders to equip them for small groups meeting in the community with a focus on evangelism.
- Work with other ministry leaders to plan, promote and coordinate events and community outreach opportunities for families and youth to work and serve together.
- Assist with the coordination of spiritual education within the congregation. Teach and mentor others in this role. Participate in working with all age groups during the year.
- Provide spiritual and pastoral care.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor's degree preferred.
- Previous preaching experience preferred.
- Relevant experience in ministry or missionary field desired.

The candidate must have the experience, skills, and desire to reach out lovingly with the Gospel of Christ to the congregation and community and develop strong interpersonal relationships.
